Student Arrested for Attempted Murder and Mayhem against another student at Northgate High School

Walnut Creek Police are investigating a violent assault on a student at Northgate High School that took place this afternoon, April 25, 2023. Police received a call from the school around 1:00 p.m. reporting a female student was stabbed by a male student and sustained injuries. Walnut Creek Police Department officers and detectives arrived, detained the student believed to be responsible, and quickly determined this was an isolated incident between two students. Based on the initial investigation, the suspect was arrested for PC 664/187 – Attempted Murder and PC 203 – Mayhem. He was transported to Contra Costa Juvenile Hall and is being held without bail.

The victim is currently being treated for her injuries at a local hospital and her condition is unknown.

The names of the involved parties will not be released, as they are juveniles. No other details are available at this time because this is an active investigation.

Anyone with any information is asked to contact Walnut Creek Police Department at 925-943-5844 or call the Anonymous Tip Line at 925-943-5865.
